The Eskenazi Museum of Art has rich holdings of works by European and American women artists including paintings, drawings, sculptures, prints and photographs with examples ranging from the 18th through the 21st century. The prevalence of visually creative women in the 20th century represents a hard won victory, as the challenges faced by women in previous centuries demonstrates.

Besides offering students background into historical constraints faced by women artists, this course will have students engage in guided research and writing, to publish selected examples online.
