The Department of Art History is now accepting submissions for the

Grafton D. Trout Essay Prize

One student will be awarded $500 for the best art history paper written between Spring 2021 and Spring 2022

Guidelines:
All currently enrolled students regardless of major are welcome to apply. Papers must be the original work of the submitting student and have been written for an Art History (or Art History cross-listed) course at Indiana University Bloomington between Spring 2021 and Spring 2022. There are no length requirements, but all papers must include full citations, bibliography, and, where applicable, images (in black & white or in color).

To Submit:
Email a copy of your paper to arthist@indiana.edu by Friday, April 8th and include the name and course number of the class associated with your paper.

The winner will be chosen by the Art History faculty by April 12th, and the prize will be awarded at the departmental undergraduate awards ceremony.

Questions? Email arthist@indiana.edu.

Shi Jietau, Returning Birds Bring Mountain Fragrance. 17th century, Eskenazi Museum of Art, Indiana University Bloomington.